

Collection YOSHIDA

Yoshida is a wardrobe which recalls, in its name and in its shape the Japanese culture: its doors look like the sliding panels of Japanese houses. The basic design is given by the frontal frame which holds the panels which are available in different colours.

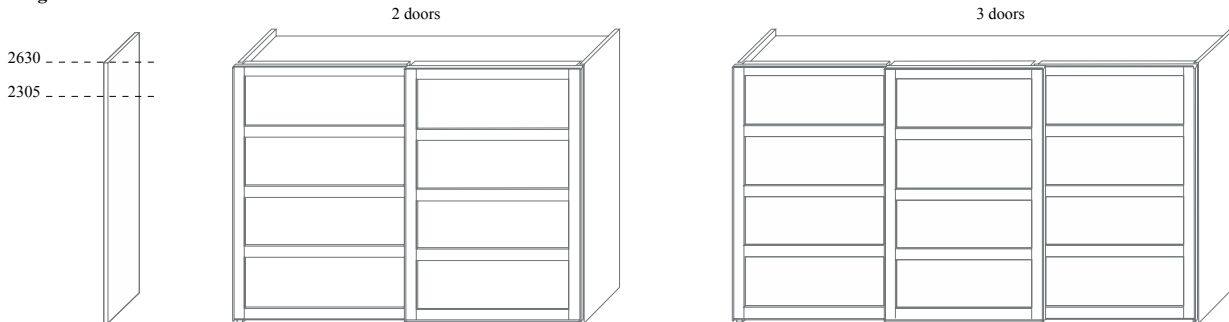

design: Pietro Arosio

Finishes:

- Doors: mat lacquered in our selected colours
- External sides: mat lacquered in our selected colours
- Internal finish: mat lacquered in our selected colours, dark walnut

Dimensions:

Height

Width

