

BONALDO

Squaring accessories

Designer: Giuseppe Viganò

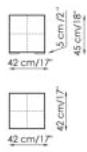

The Squaring accessories turn the sleeping area into a living space. Inspired by the series of beds of the same name, the geometry, covers and quilting of which it recalls, the collection includes bedside table, bench and pouf (large or small). All the elements are distinguished by the design strength and sartorial accuracy of the processes, characteristics that, combined with the severity of the lines, make them extremely contemporary and perfectly suited to modern residential styles. With completely removable covers available in fabric, leather or eco-leather, the Squaring accessories can be used individually or combined in a group, furnishing the sleeping area in an original and creative way, ensuring the utmost functionality and consistency of the design.
